

Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Policy

Introduction

Historically, the Roman Catholic Church has sought to better lives of all in the spirit of the Kingdom. The identity and mission of the Church revolve around the presence of the Kingdom from which the Good News of Jesus is realized. It is this presence which must be celebrated in an environment of safety and justice.

Of particular concern is the care and the welfare of our children and of our young people. To this end, the Office of Child Protection, Diocese of Grand Island, has formulated and has implemented a goal ministry in which this is realized. It is through this diligence, vigilance, and care in which a pastoral heart is created, anchored in the love of God, and made real in the proclamation of the Good News. This hope and this prayer then serves as the foundation from which the common good is acknowledged and is celebrated.
